

Community Based Counseling for Youth and Adolescents

Rochester, NY

The Center for Youth provides prevention counseling as part of its continuum of care for youth. The Center also offers an intervention program, Teen intervene, for teens who want to eliminate drug, alcohol and tobacco use. Services are free, confidential, and based on voluntary participation of youth.

Youth can access counseling by calling the 24-hour line 585-271-7670 or by visiting:

Center for Youth

905 Monroe Avenue, Rochester

between 9 AM and 8 PM, Monday through Friday.

Services include, but are not limited to:

Crisis intervention, phone counseling, individual and family counseling, ongoing assessment and referrals.